Financial Advocacy

Help understanding your aged care services fees and charges.

You have a right to be informed about your aged care services in a way that you understand, especially when it comes to your aged care financial information.

Our Financial Advocates:

- Help explain the costs and pricing of aged care services.
- Provide information on home care and residential aged care statements and invoices.
- Liaise with aged care providers and other stakeholders to resolve issues with fees and charges.

What we can't do

Financial Advocates cannot provide financial advice and are unable to assist with investments, credit superannuation or tax.

Financial Advocates cannot provide information about non-aged care related financial issues such as household bills or debts.

This is information only and not legal or financial advice.

If you have a legal or financial problem call our service directly, see your lawyer or a financial advisor.
